Living with Autism: Adults with Autism Spectrum Disorders Speak Out!

Presented by Autism Society Canada

In 2007, Autism Society Canada established an Advisory Committee of Adults Living with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). On November 26th, three Committee members will speak about their realities. We will hear from Kristian Hooker, Georges Huard and Martine Stonehouse, all who have been diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

This colloquium will be introduced by Dr. Kevin Stoddart, Director of the Redpath Centre in Toronto and Assistant Professor at the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto.

Autism Society Canada (ASC) is a national incorporated non-profit charitable organization. It was founded in 1976 by a group of parents committed to advocacy, public education, information and referral, and support for its regional societies.
