

Addressing Problematic Feeding Behaviours Using a Behavioural Approach

LAUREN BINNENDYK, PhD,
BCBA-D; Director, West Coast Feeding and Behaviour Specialists

This presentation will provide an overview of a behavioural intervention approach to problematic feeding behaviour which includes parent training and implementation support in a family meal routine. Case study examples will be provided for three major feeding issues – selective eating, oral motor delay, and tube dependence.

Contact joanne.oconnor@ubc.ca

Tuesday

APRIL 30, 2013

10:30 am - 12:00 pm

Neville Scarfe Room 278
(above Library Block)

RSVP <http://tinyurl.com/CIRCA-LaurenBinnendyk>

